◆ Day 2: FRIDAY, 03/02/23 – SIEM REAP

(B/L)

At around 08:00 a.m. after breakfast, depart from the hotel, by an electric bike or mountain bike depending on your choice, for a wonderful day of exploration of the majestic site of Angkor, classified in 1992 as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Visit the ancient capital of Angkor Thom, a vast architectural complex with the famous Bayon at its center. This mountain-temple was once surrounded by 54 towers. On each of the 37 remaining stone figures, four enigmatic faces can still be recognized. Then, discover the fascinating Ta Prohm Temple, undoubtedly one of the most famous monuments along with Angkor Wat and the Bayon. Swallowed by the jungle, its ruins are now invaded by roots of kapok trees resembling giant snakes.

And to end the morning, visit a smaller stone temple of the 12th century, Ta Nei, that is very rarely visited. Built during the reign of King Jayavarman VII, discover the magic of the semi-ruined, untouristed jungle temple displaying classic Jayavarman VII artistry.

 Lunch is at a local restaurant.

In the afternoon, visit Angkor Wat, the most famous of the mountain temples. It is entirely dedicated to Vishnu, the supreme god of Hinduism and was built in the early 12th century by Suryavarman II. The temple is considered a masterpiece of Khmer art and architecture. Its temple walls are decorated with thousands of bas relief symbolizing prominent deities and figures in the Hindi and Buddhist religions.

In the late afternoon, visit a handicraft center and discover the Cambodian natural essence.

 Dinner is at leisure.

 Overnight in Siem Reap.

NEW IN 2023

- Visit of the temples by an electric bicycle
- Discovery of Ta Nei, a hidden and rarely visited temple

Angkor, the former capital of the Khmer Empire.

Its mystery lies in its ancient ruins, now classified as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO.

Originally Hindu, the various ruins gradually became Buddhist and were abandoned for a long time in the tropical jungle. Today, the site impresses by its majesty and the grace of its monuments, offers a unique opportunity to go back in time as you walk through Angkor.
