

Street of Kouroutes 8.500m

24th of March is the date that entries can be registered for the Street of Kouroutes. The race as already known will be held on Sunday, the 28 of May, 2017.

The application process for participation begins Friday, March. 24, through the website of the event at www.psiloritisrace.com. Also through the website interested athletes have the opportunity to learn about the terms and costs of participation. The race is organized by the non-profit company "Race Psiloritis."

KEY MATCH DETAILS

The route starts from the village and the birthplace of the first feminist Kallirois Siganou-Parren, Platania.

It runs through olive groves and vineyards and reaches the historic center of the municipality Amari headquarters of the Municipal Unit Kouroutes, Fourfouras.

There exists also the first station. Continuing our journey, always left the stately and storied old Psiloritis and our right to arrive at Cabo Amariotiko toponym Windmill where the second station. The view compensates us looking ahead to the Libyan Sea and the historic villages of Ampadia and leaving behind the remaining villages-eagle nests, Amari perched on the slopes of Mt center and Samit. Going down to Kouroutes our gaze towards the slopes of lofty Psiloritis brave athletes as Kouroutes formerly walked the mythical mountain, taking the road to Kouretia.

In just ahead lies the historic village of Kouroutes who welcomes us with what else? With one mandinada...

Start time 09:00

Personal registration 20,00 euro (transfer and lunch included)

Run the steps of Zeus

The organizing committee

www.psiloritisrace.com

info@psiloritisrace.com

<http://www.facebook.com/pages/Psiloritis-Race/469064896441986>