

Pace Match - Waiver and Terms & Conditions

By processing your payment, you are accepting the following terms and conditions:

- You confirm that you are at least 25 years of age.
- You agree to follow all general terms, safety instructions, and any venue regulations throughout the gathering.
- Official photography and videography may take place and be used for promotional purposes, including but not limited to social media, website, and future marketing campaigns.
- Payments are strictly non-refundable. No refunds will be provided under any circumstances.
- By participating in any Pace Match gathering or activity, you assume all risks associated with physical activity and outdoor participation. Pace Match and its organizer(s) bear no liability or responsibility for any injury, loss, or damage incurred during or after the gathering.
- All participants are expected to use good judgment, follow UAE laws, and respect the safety of themselves and others.
- These terms also apply to any additional person covered under your ticket (e.g., if you purchase multiple tickets).
- It is your responsibility to have your own health and medical insurance. No insurance will be provided by Pace Match.
- The organizer reserves the right to deny or cancel any registration at any time, without refund, if a participant's presence is deemed inappropriate, disruptive or misaligned with the values and purpose of the group; including, but not limited to, prior incidents of misconduct.
- By participating in any Pace Match gathering or activity, you are releasing Pace Match and its organizer(s) from all liability.
